

The Arizona Chapter of The American Jewish Committee invites you to

Meet Daniel Pearl's Father

for his exclusive speaking engagement in the Phoenix area on:

Being Jewish in the Post 9/11 Era - Daniel Pearl's Inspiration

Daniel Pearl, the Wall Street Journal reporter viciously murdered by terrorists in Pakistan 2002, was targeted as an American and a Jew.

Daniel Pearl's senseless murder lay beyond comprehension. Not only was he a musician, a writer, a story-teller, and bridge-builder, he was also a beloved son, brother, uncle, husband, and father to a child who will never know him.

Daniel's parents, Dr. Judea and Ruth Pearl, founded the Daniel Pearl Foundation to continue their son's mission and to address the root causes of this tragedy, in the spirit, style, and principles that shaped Danny's work and character. Together, Dr. & Mrs. Pearl edited, I Am Jewish: Personal Reflections Inspired by the Last Words of Daniel Pearl, winner of the 2004 National Jewish Book Award.
